Foreword

The Menardian Staff takes pleasure in presenting the 1954 edition of THE MENARDIAN. High mount our hopes that the enjoyment you draw from these pages matches the efforts we expended to portray the typical life about Menard.

When the years have raced away; when school life has joined the ranks of the phantoms of the past; when new horizons crowd out the present, then we entertain the felicitous confidence that the impressions gleaned from these pages will conjure up the pleasurable experiences with teachers, pals, and events that commanded an importance during the "happy days."

We trust that this sparse history may, in some way, aid you to re-live these memories, and keep them as fresh as they are today.

Dedication

A sketchy reading of Menard's short history discloses the salient fact that Brother Julius has been a vital factor in its growth. Through the years Menard has had some kind of magnetism towards our honored Principal and has drawn him many times to do his work here. One would say he grew up with Menard, yet the old-timers will jump back a decade or more and recall his more active days at the Brothers' downtown school.

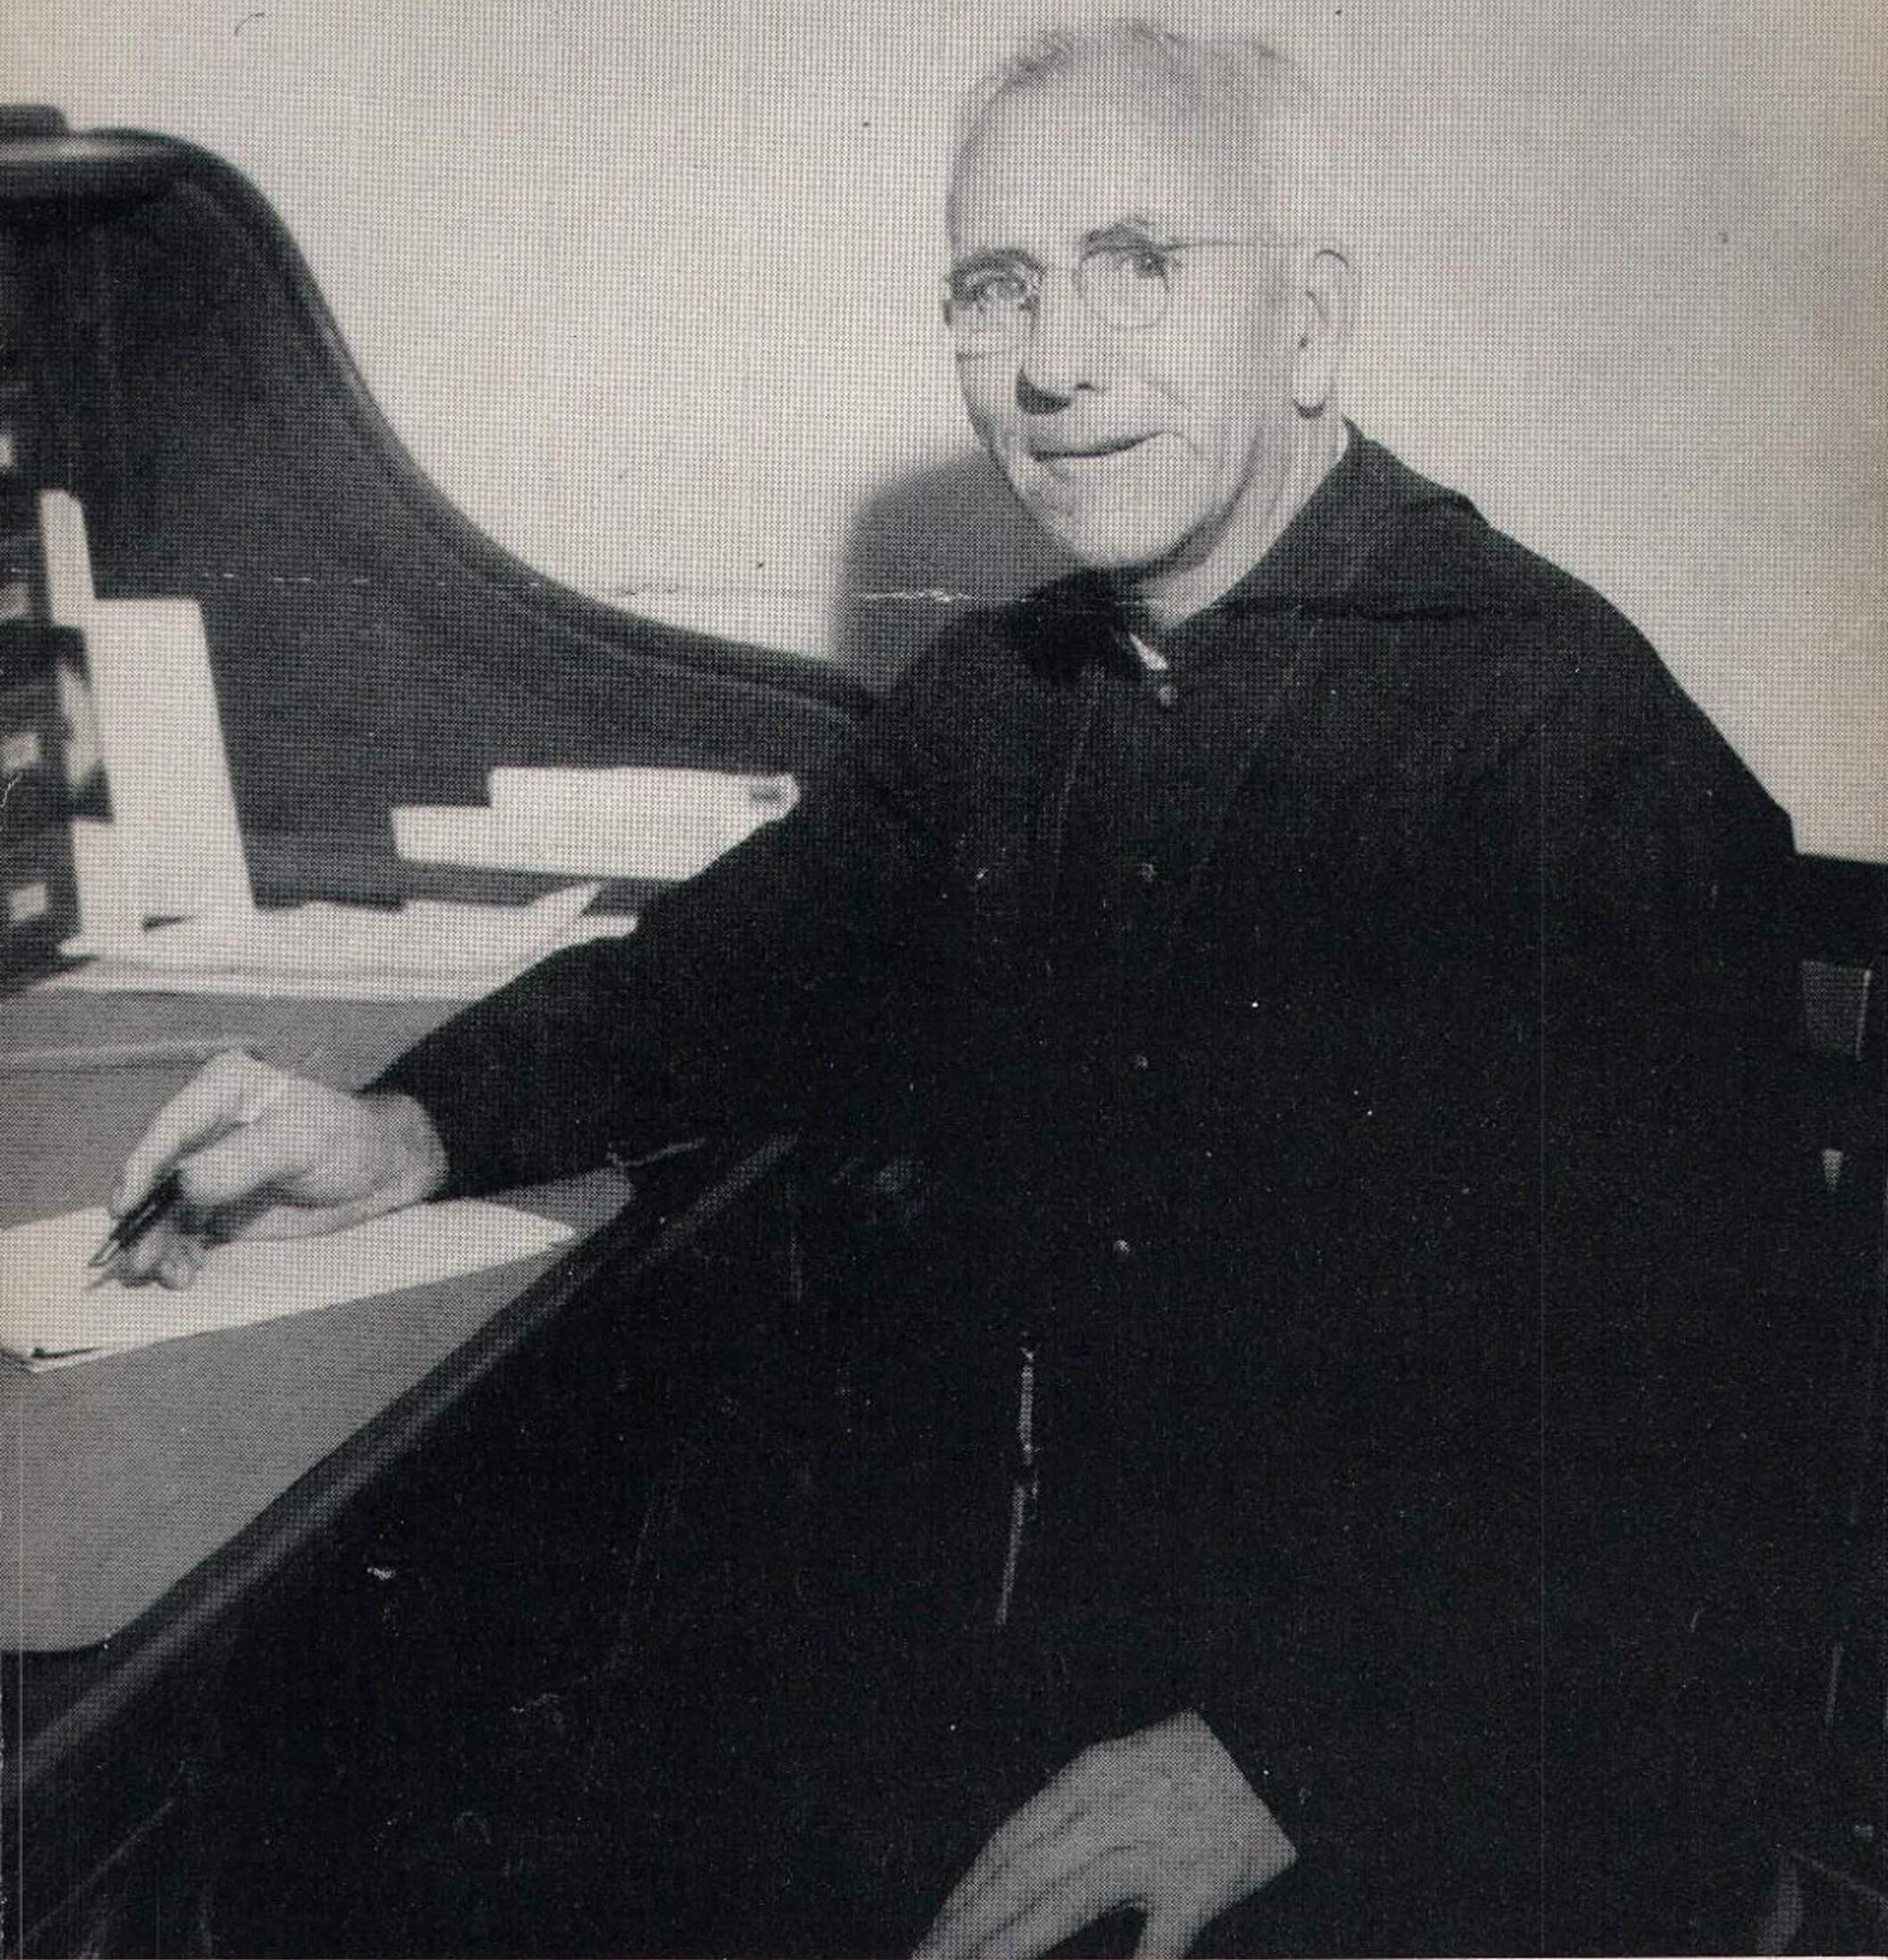

Naturally bent to mathematics and science, Brother Julius has attained an enviable proficiency, which places him among the best in these fields.

A persuasive stentorian voice has been the ideal companion to his rare administrative qualities, which have been displayed to equally rare success in numerous and sundry positions here and elsewhere.

In this late stage of life, we recognize the qualities that have shown forth in this venerable Brother of the Sacred Heart. His services to Menard Memorial have become part of its tradition, and have endeared him to this generation and those of the past.

In this little way we pay tribute to Brother Julius by dedicating this 1954 MENARDIAN to him.

Principal's Message

My dear Seniors,

You have reached the culmination of your high school career. You are about to venture forth into the life of the world, into university life or into military life. In all three cases, you will be called upon to show the Catholic training that you received at Menard Memorial High School. As a city situated on the side of a mountain cannot be hid, neither can you hide the fact that you are a Catholic and therefore a Christian Gentleman. You will be expected to show traits of good Catholic Action—don't disappoint us.

We, the Brothers at Menard, have tried to inculcate into you the highest principles of leadership—leadership with regard to the affairs of the world as well as to the affairs of God. We have tried to give you a perspective that will enable you to meet, ponder, decide and act in a truly Christian spirit.

We believe that you will show your training in these fields, because you will pray that you may continue to receive the Gift of Wisdom—the gift that will enable you to see things as they really are—in the eyes of God.

Be a true Menardian—true to yourself, your school, your family, your Church, your country and then you will be true to Almighty God.

May the Sacred Heart continue to bless you and keep you. May the Blessed Mother cover you with the mantle of her loving care.

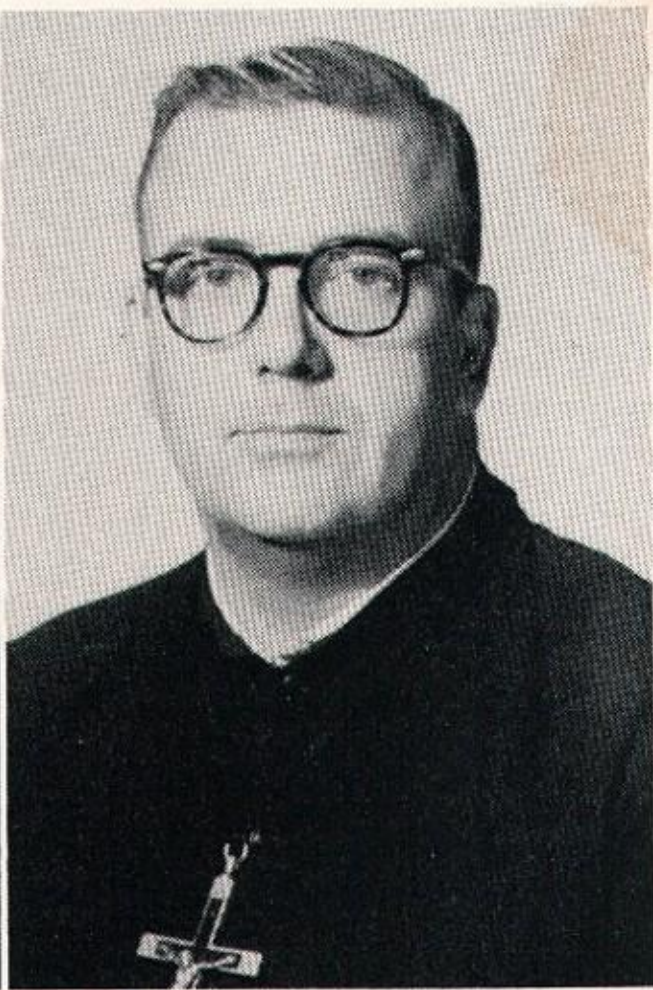

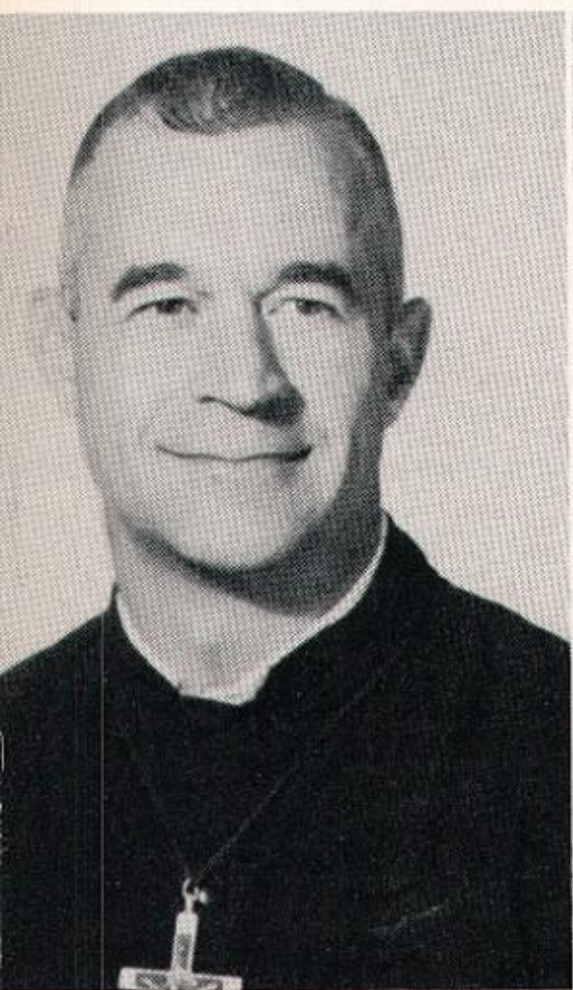

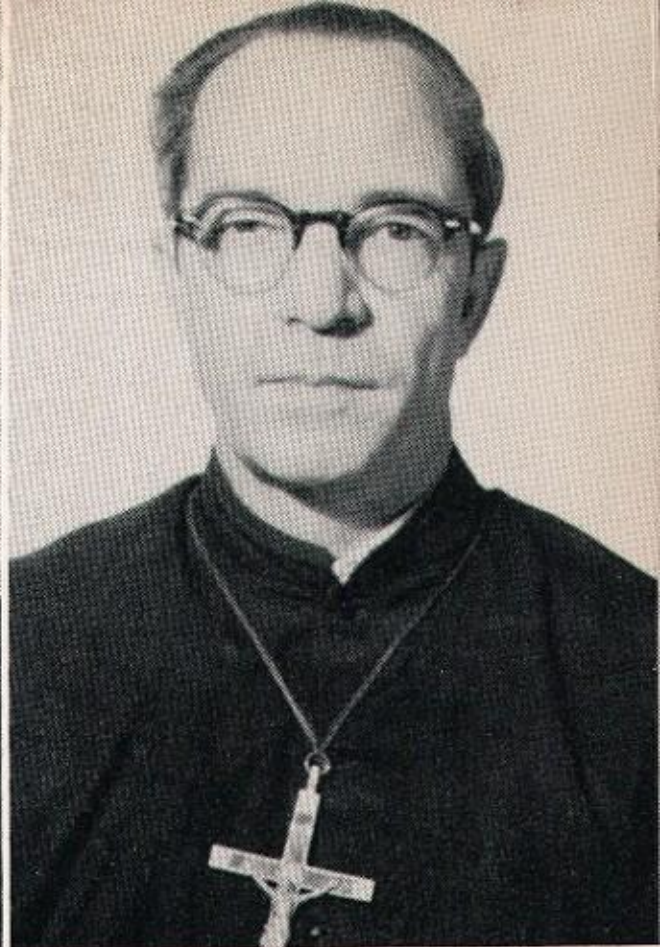

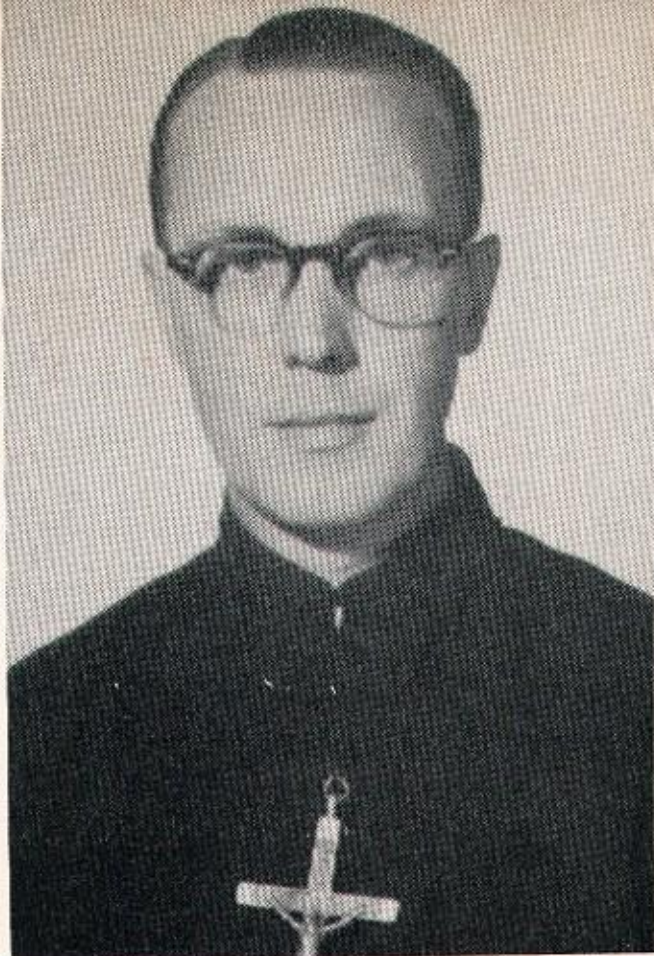

Sincerely yours in the Sacred Heart,

Brother Julius, S.C.

50 BOB ADAMSON

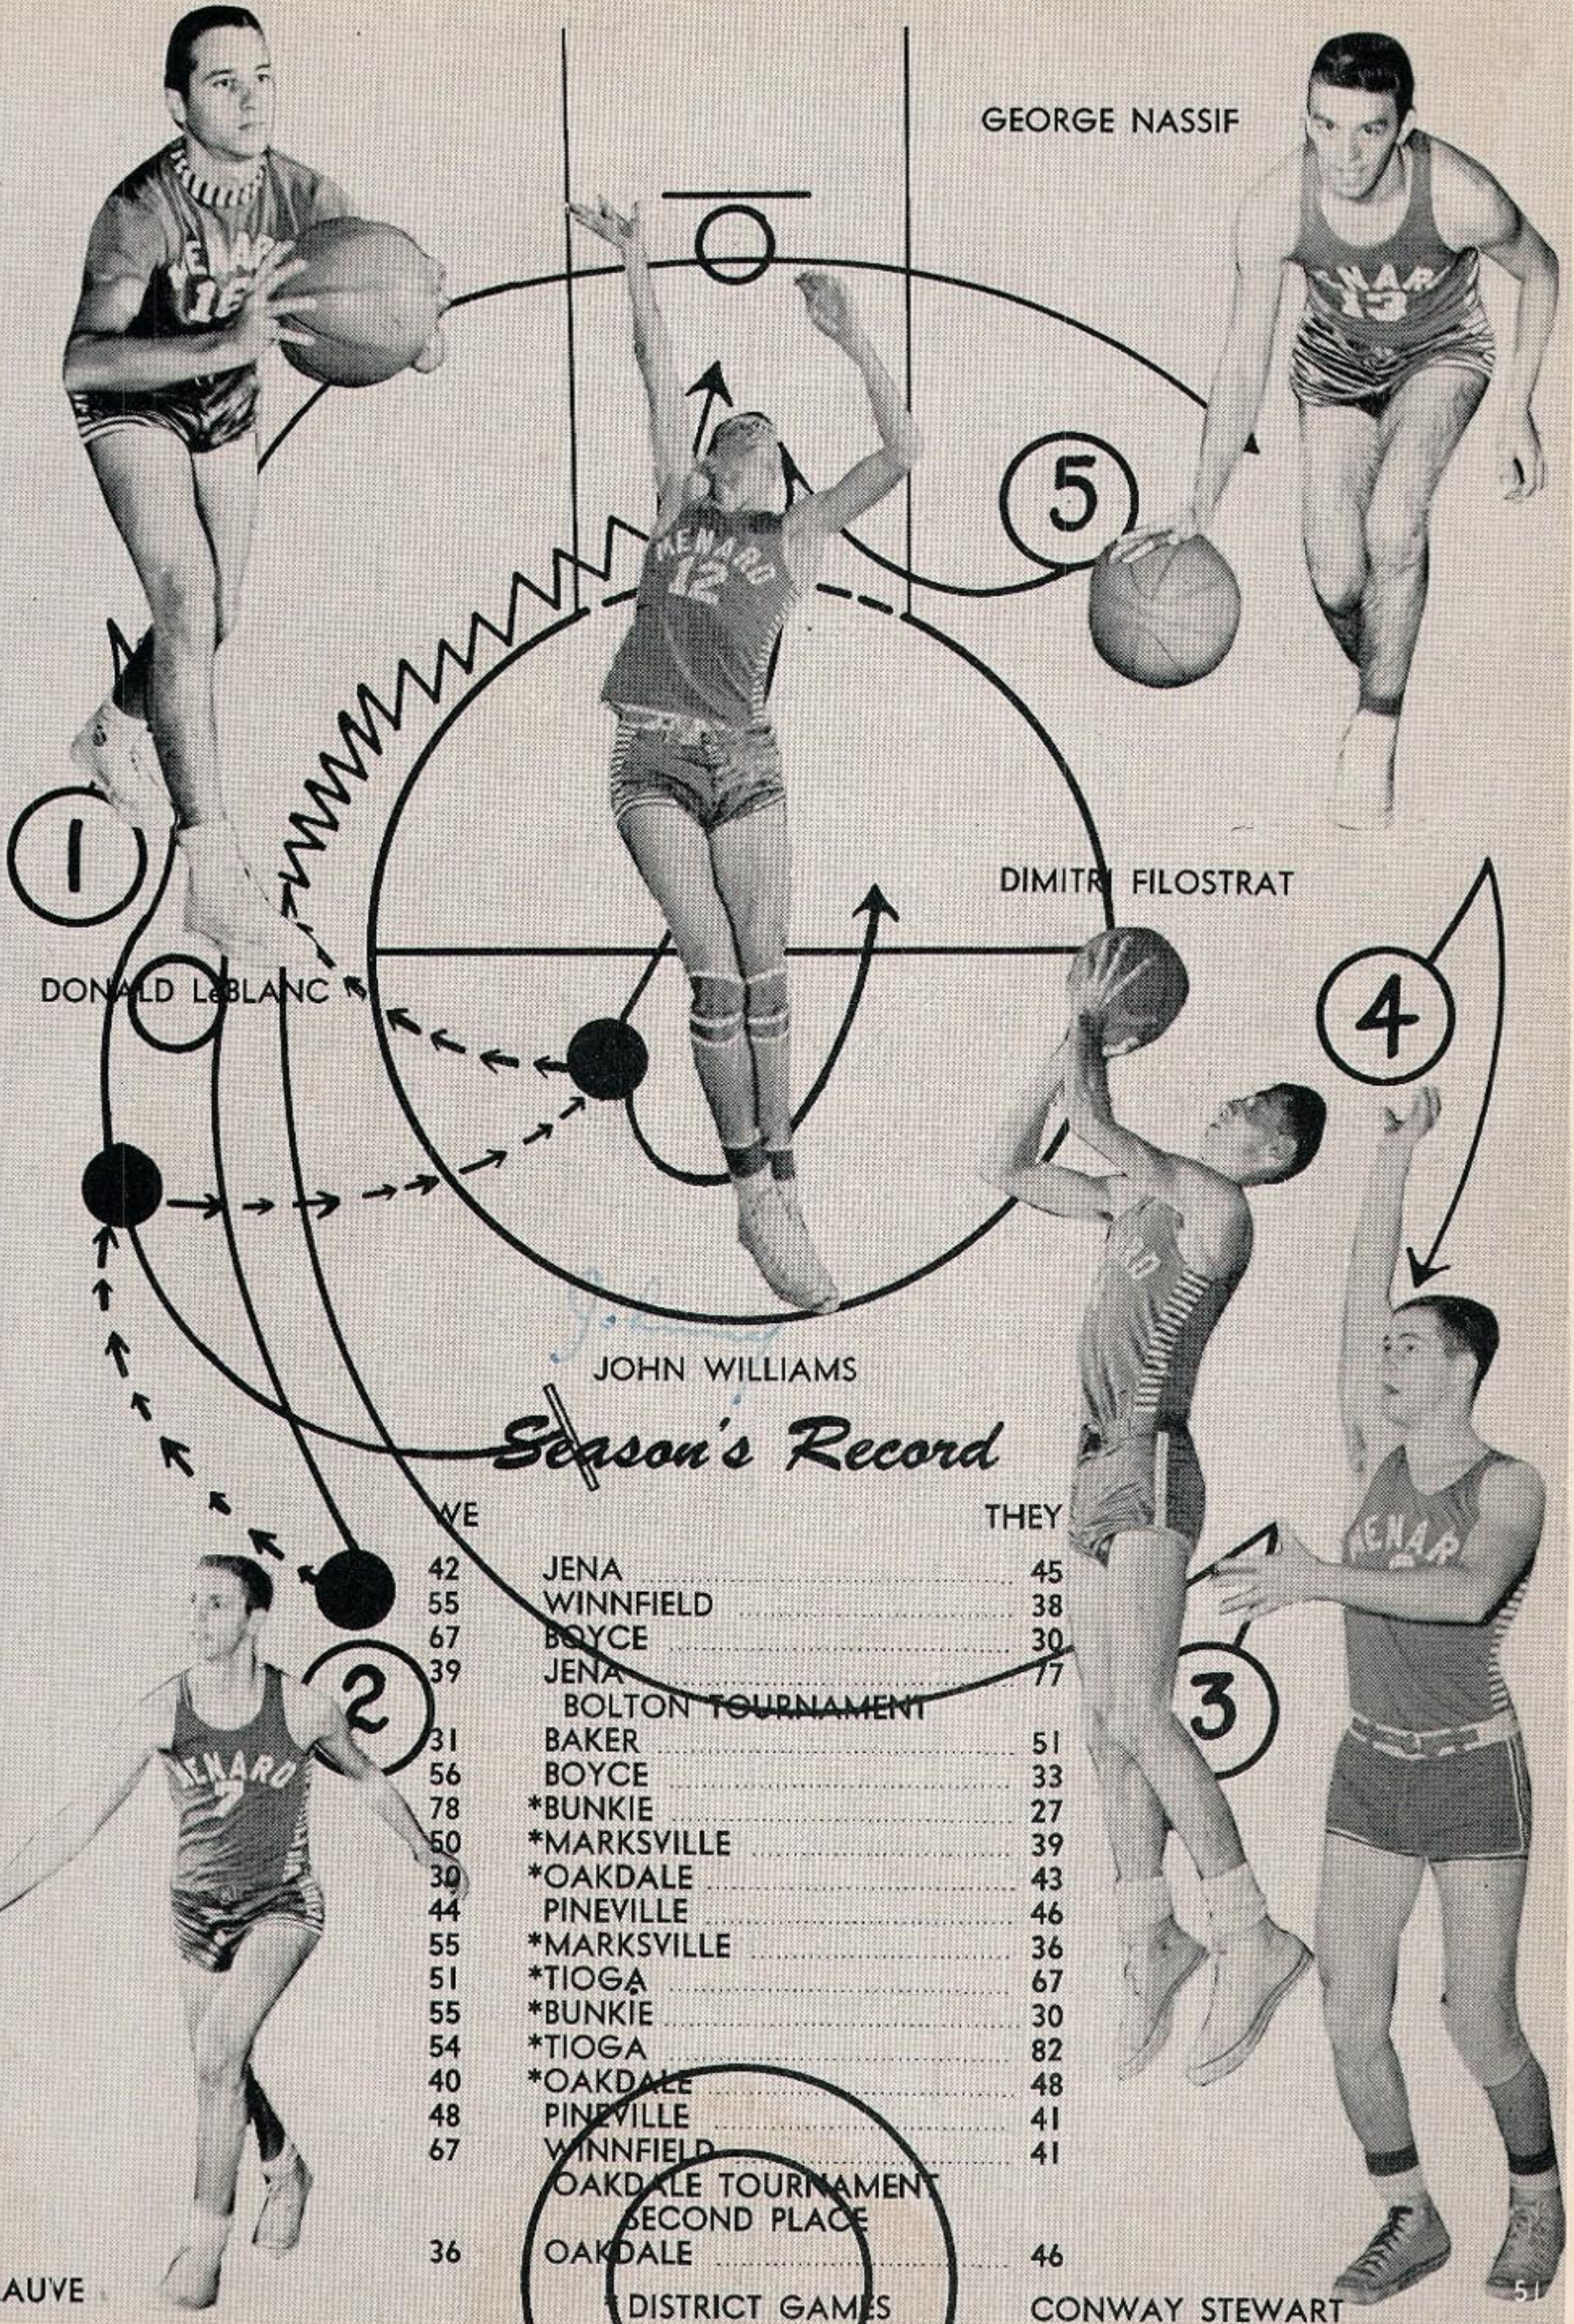

Lack of experience spelled the tale of woe to the 1954 Eagles. In the thick of the fray this lack of "under fire play" meant many close games. Fred Couvillon has been the consolation to this team, in that he has maintained his position on the squad and has lived up to the expectations of early season predictions. His aggressiveness on offensive and particularly on defense gives us hopes of a sparkling successful season next year.

BROTHER MARION, S.C.
Commandant

Along with the mental and moral development available at Menard, the students are trained physically through the military program which is an integral part of their school life. Besides regular line-ups preparatory to reporting to class in perfect order, military drills are the order of the day three times a week to familiarize all with the cadet fundamentals of marching.

Under the comprehensive guidance of Brother Marion, Menard Cadets are well known in the State for their mastery of these principles. Beyond State recognition Menard enjoys a singular honor in that its Junior Air Reserve is the only one of its kind in the entire nation.

Organizations

Confraternity of the Sacred Heart

The Confraternity of the Sacred Heart is the official student spiritual organization in all schools conducted by the Brothers of the Sacred Heart. Since its inception at Menard in 1951, it has been a chief medium in correlating the ideals of religious instruction received in class with actual practical application. The primary aim of this Confraternity is to give honor and reparation to the Sacred Heart of Christ, to repay in some measure His self-immolating love; its secondary object is to promote devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. The Confraternity strives to fulfill this double object by enabling its members through united action to afford mutual aid and to employ appropriate and efficacious means to attain their most important aim—personal sanctification; and by training to Catholic Action. Through its projects and activities throughout the year, it affords the entire student body an opportunity to better themselves spiritually and helps to produce men of Apostolic zeal, so sorely needed in the Church today.

On the 22nd of January, a Special Mass was celebrated by Father Teacle in the Recreation Hall. After the Mass, 37 candidates were officially received into the Confraternity of the Sacred Heart. # Mothers' Club

The Mendard Mothers' Club is an active organization composed of mothers whose sons are presently in school or whose sons are already graduated. They were organized for the purpose of securing the little things necessary about school that aid to make Menard more homelike for the Brothers and the students. In the beginning of each scholastic year, the mothers decide upon a specific project that will help the school the most. To bring this to a reality one special function is sponsored, a Country Fair this year, by which they realize the greater amount of their funds. It is most common to see members of the Mothers' Club serve in the preparation of delicious dinners whenever banquets are held by other organizations of the school; others will render their services at socials, dances etc. That element of the feminine touch is eagerly sought and deeply appreciated. A tribute of thanks is graciously tendered by the Brothers and students.

The Menard Memorial Athletic Association is by far the most active organization in the school. It is through their efforts that they maintain two coaches to provide a complete and much needed athletic program for students at Menard. By dint of personal enthusiasm they keep the athletic teams equipped with the best in that line; plan to do something about the transportation situation; and honor the Green and White athletes at banquets and in the form of coveted awards.

The Menard Alumni Association through the cooperation of its many graduates assists Menard in numerous little ways. As a social organization they take it upon themselves to sponsor each year the colorful Homecoming Crowning and the annual Homecoming Ball. By their contacts they aid Catholic youth to further their education by enrolling at Menard. In every way they seek to keep Menard as THE SCHOOL for the Catholic boys of Alexandria.

Frequent meetings keep the spirit of this worthy organization alive.

The Menardian Staff is composed of students who are eager to use their writing talents in a higher form of journalism. In a short time they soon realize that this hidden work includes many diversified activities which are essential to the production of a worthwhile yearbook. From early autumn to late spring, during the after school hours, on Saturdays—even at night—they will be the tenacious "ad hounds"; they will pore through countless annuals for ideas; they will master the wise selection of words; they will type copy after copy; they will surmount the problems of lay-outs and designs; and finally, will be happy to be salesmen of their "creation."

Very quietly these talents are bound together in a copy of the MENARDIAN, whose arrival is anxiously awaited each May.

welcomes the teachers.

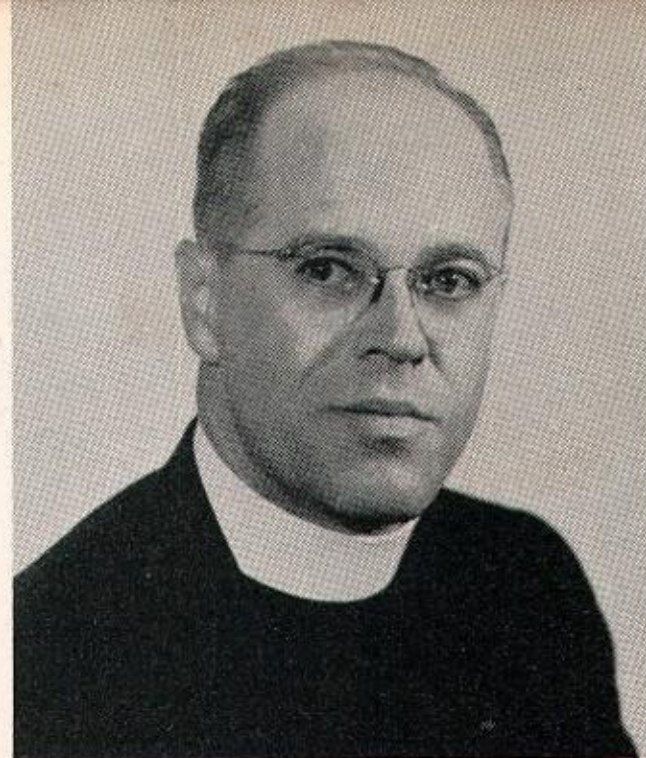

BROTHER CYR, S.C.
Chairman

The Centennial Mass began the proceedings of the Teachers' Institute.

Teachers' Institute

Rev. Elwood P. Hecker, S.J.
... "Establishing a Guidance Program."

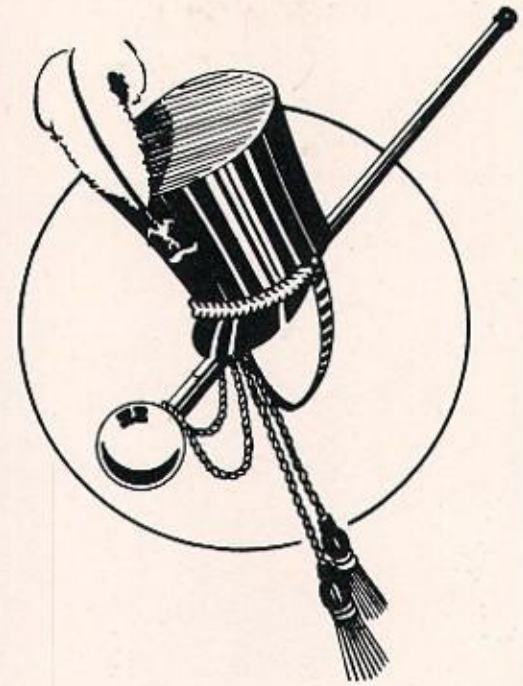

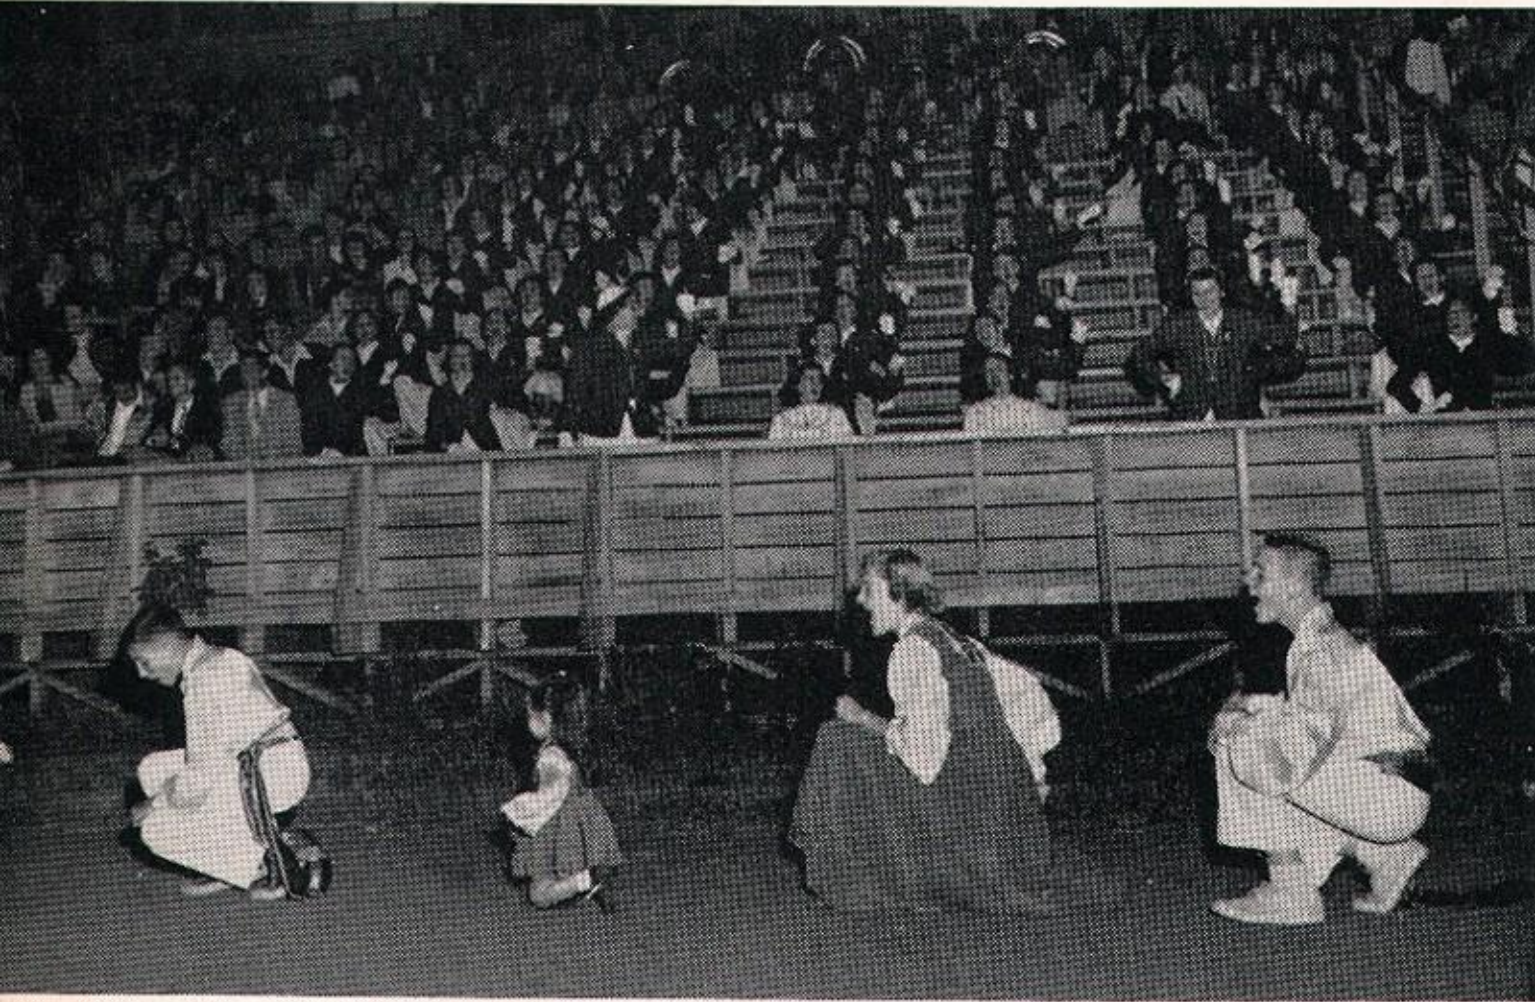

Bishop Greco was intrigued by "Little Brother," while Brother Donnan and surprised Brother Cyr look on.

A sumptuous dinner is enjoyed by Bishop Grace and members of the clergy.
Site: Prompt Succor Cafeteria; Servers: Providence girls.

Providence Boosters

Providence Boosters take their cue from Robert Guillot, Cynthia DiStephano, Phyllis Knoblock, and "Moe" Provosty.

Wherever the Eagles meet their gridiron foes, one notes a unified volume of shouts and cheers which comes from this bevy of young ladies, called the Providence Boosters. This splendid corps displays a spirit that has become part of each contest. This voluntary service becomes all the more praiseworthy as it entails personal expense for uniforms and travel, and much sacrifice to give up after-school time in hours of tiring, monotonous marching and formations.

Zestful Cheerleaders spark our team!

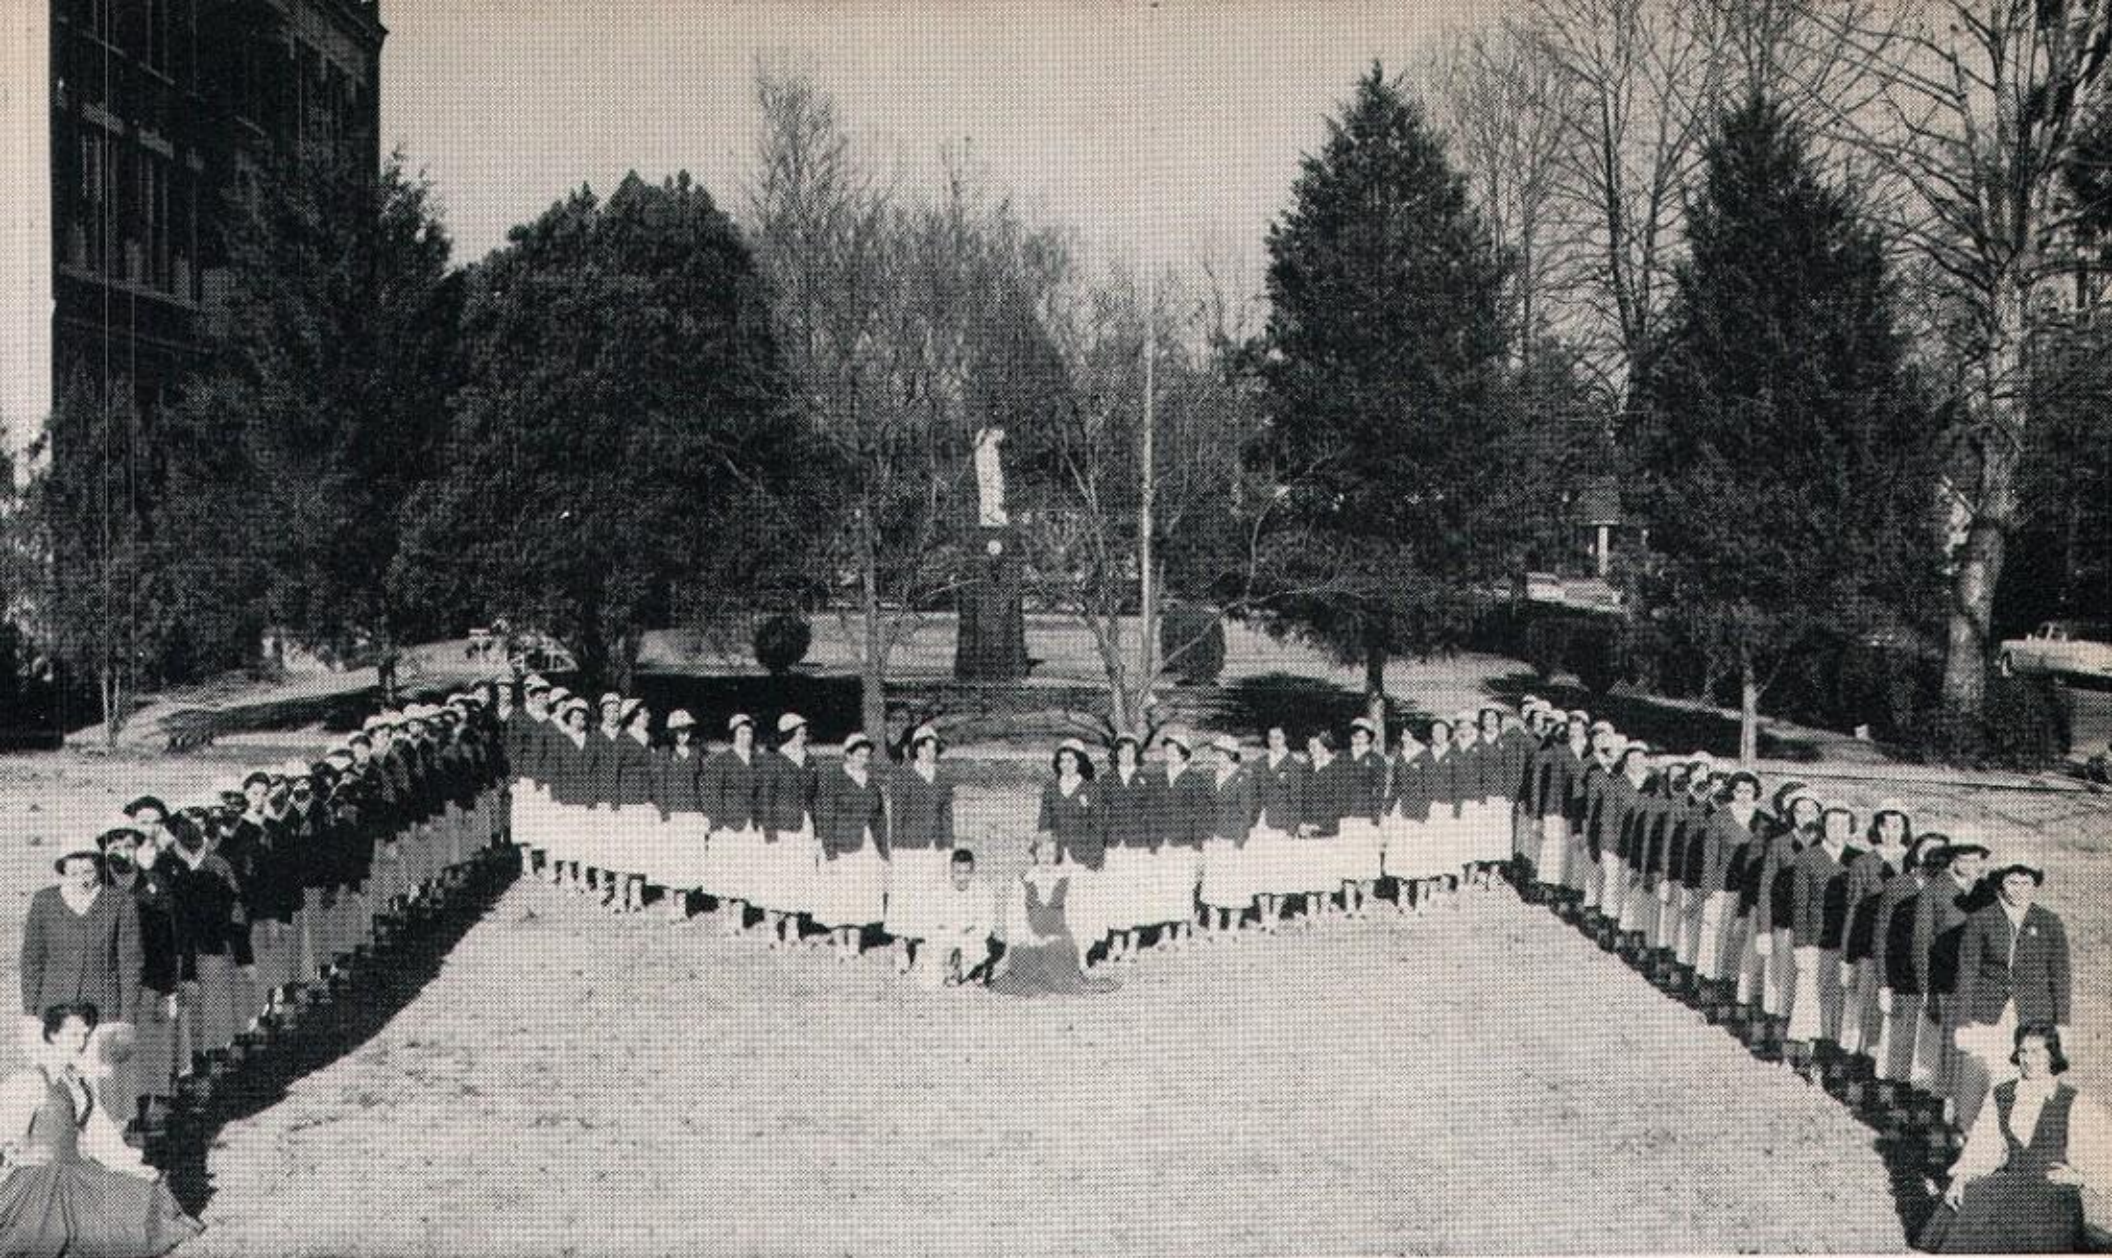

*Good Luck
Rab. Harold Chaudoir*

CHEERLEADERS

Pamela Gremillion, Judy Lemoine, Phyllis Knoblock, and Harold Chaudoir.

Providence Boosters form their popular "M."

CHEERLEADERS

Harold Chaudoir, Pamela Gremillion, Cynthia Di-Stephano, and Robert Guillot lead the energetic Boosters.

Radio

Butch Crenshaw, Irvin Keegan, Margaret Longo, and Gloria Bossier enact "I AM THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION" over KALB.

"I AM THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION" over KALB brought Wayne Rowe, Irvin Keegan, Kitty Flanagan, Mary Carlyn, Lee Jeansonne, Lynn Leger, and Rhea Chaudoir together to share the "limelight."

KEY CLUB DANCE

Michael Monsour "shoots it out" at the Plymouth Rock Dance.

Dimitri Filostrat, Key Club President, presents Margaret Longo the coveted bouquet, which designated her "Key Club Sweetheart."

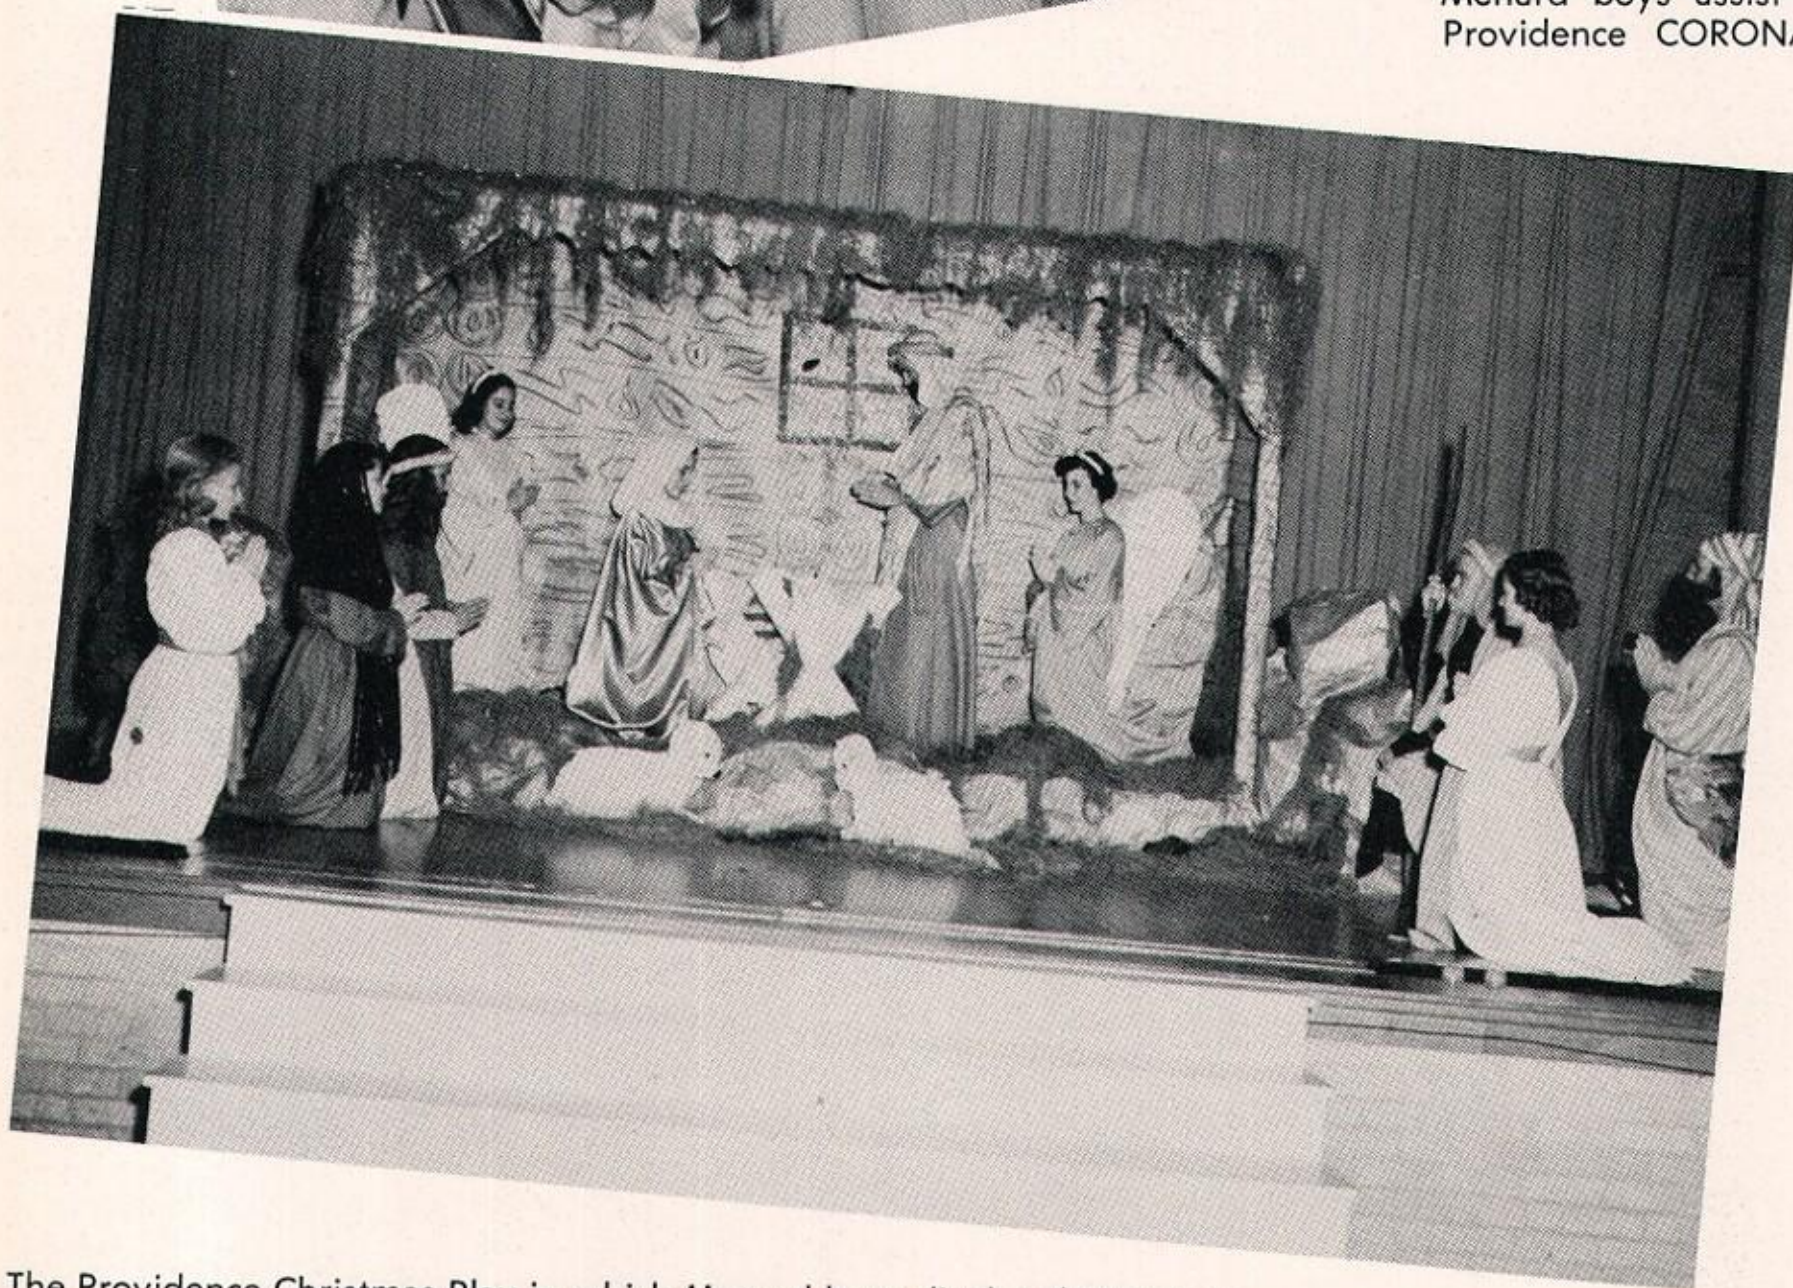

Beverley D'Angelo, Fay Perez, Clyde Ortego, Hamp Smith, Shirley Lemoine, Gene Normand admire a tasty cake at Plymouth Rock Dance.

Coronation

Menard boys assist in the Providence CORONATION.

The Providence Christmas Play in which Menard boys display their talents.

Dramatics

From time to time Menard boys are called upon to participate in the stage productions put on at Providence.

Enthusiasm and interest encourage many boys to seek a part in these popular plays.

Michael Monsour plays "Joseph" with Mary Carlyon as "Mary."

A light moment in "Come to the Stable" with Jimmy Vanderhoeven, Wayne Rowe, Edna Kaiser, and Gloria Bossier.

4-H Club

MENARD-PROVIDENCE 4-H OFFICERS—Kathleen Thiels, Reporter; Kathryn Hanes, Vice President; Daniel Verzwylvelt, President; John Van Mol, Secretary; Lydia Varner, Treasurer.

As many of our boys are from the surrounding rural areas, 4-H activities have their appeal. Each member devotes his energies to some project dealing with farm life. A sense of duty and responsibility is thereby developed which in turn aids him to fit into his kind of life now and later.

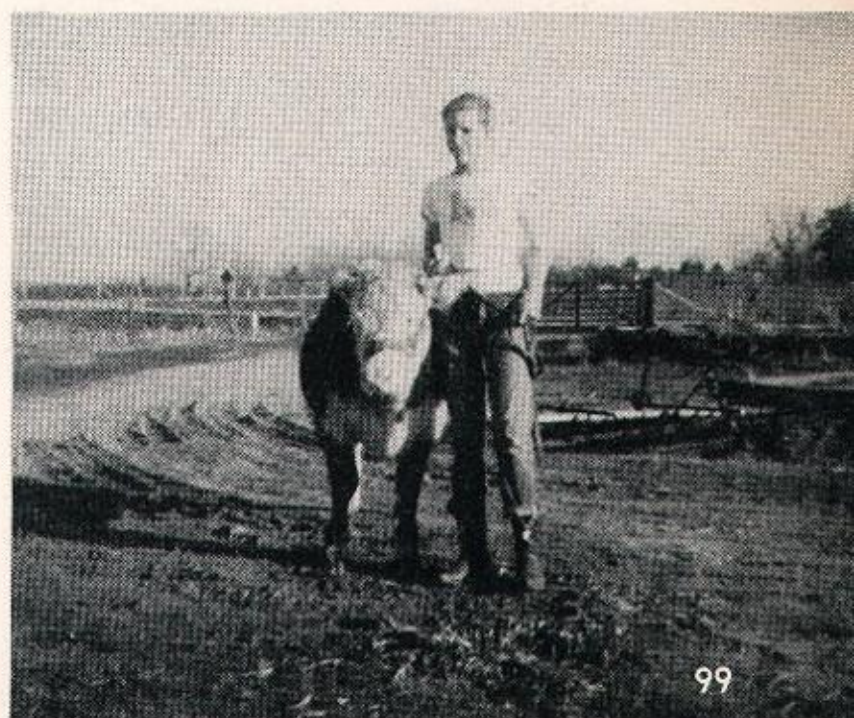

David Huffman and his 140 chicks.

Larry Thiels and his "Porkie."

Daniel Verzwylt, President of the 4-H Club, has enjoyed the most success in his projects during the past year. Blue ribbons and trophies have become the expected outcome of his exhibitions. At the State Fair held in Shreveport, Daniel amassed more First Prizes than any other single contestant. Here he stands with his prize of prizes.
